Re: Robbery Investigation

RELEASE SUMMARY

UPDATE

At 2:26 AM on Sunday, March 22, 2020, the North Canton Police Department located the suspects involved in a robbery that occurred a few hours earlier at Zepp's Pizza located on S. Main St. in North Canton. The suspects, Garrison R. Hoover (25) and Tiffany M. Stephan (40), both from Massillon, were located at Mercy Medical Center and taken into custody without incident.

During the robbery an altercation took place between the victim and Garrison resulting in an injury to Garrison. The victim was struck in the face and had his leg ran over by the fleeing vehicle. The victim was transported to Mercy Medical Center and provided emergency room personnel with a description of the suspect. North Canton PD was contacted when a subject matching Garrison's description entered the emergency room. An officer responded to the scene and spoke with the victim who had not yet been released. The victim was able to positively identify both Garrison and Tiffany.

Both Garrison Hoover and Tiffany Stephan were booked into the Stark County Jail for Aggravated Robbery (ORC 2911.01). Officers are continuing to investigate the incident and are trying to locate a third suspect.

Booking photos can be requested through the Stark County Jail.
